

Carl Fourie is the General Manager and one of the Founding Members of Jembi. He has an Postgraduate degree in Computer Science and has studied towards a Masters of Medical Science in Medical Informatics. He has been involved in the field of Health/Medical Informatics from mid 2005 working with groups such as the Africa Centre, South African Medical Research Council and the OpenMRS Consortium. More recently taking the roles of Project Coordinator / Project Manager for OASIS before moving across and taking the reigns as General Manager in Jembi.